

XM radio is an outstanding service that I have enjoyed for about 6 months. It provides commercial free music, news and other information. The quality is outstanding and it is definitely worth paying 10 dollars per month. I believe that any attempt to limit satellite radio should be voted down. Thank you.